COMPLAINT AND JURY DEMAND

COMES NOW, Plaintiff Scott Harrison, by and through the undersigned counsel, and for his Complaint against Defendant, Elevate Recoveries, LLC (“ER”), under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692, et seq. (“FDCPA”), states as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This court has jurisdiction of the federal claim under 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(d).
2. Venue is proper because the acts and transactions occurred here, Plaintiff resides here, and Defendant transacts business here.
3. Under 28 U.S. Code § 1391(b)(2) a civil action may be brought in a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred.
4. Under 28 U.S. Code § 1391(d) when a defendant that is a corporation is subject to personal jurisdiction at the time an action is commenced, such corporation shall be deemed to reside in any district in that State within which its contacts would be sufficient to subject it to personal jurisdiction if that district were a separate state.
5. Plaintiff resides in the city of Lewisville, a part of Dallas County, Texas, 75067.

6. The acts that occurred giving rise to this complaint occurred while Plaintiff was in the city of Lewisville, a part of Dallas County, Texas 75067, making Dallas a proper venue under 28 U.S. Code § 1391(b)(2).

7. Defendant, a Texas corporation headquartered in Houston, Texas practices as a debt collector throughout the country, including Texas.

8. Defendant is incorporated in and has its principal place of business in Texas.

9. Defendant attempts to collect alleged debts throughout the state of Texas, including in Lewisville city and Dallas county.

10. Defendant has actual knowledge of where Plaintiff resided, and by attempting to collect from Plaintiff, purposefully availed itself to the jurisdiction in which Plaintiff resided.

11. Defendant has sufficient minimum contacts with this venue as the alleged injuries caused to Plaintiff were caused while Plaintiff was in Lewisville city and Dallas county and Defendant attempts to collect alleged debts throughout the state of Texas.

12. As Defendant knowingly attempted to collect on a debt allegedly incurred in Lewisville, Texas and thus has sufficient minimum contacts with this venue is additionally proper under 28 U.S. Code § 1391(b)(1).

STANDING

13. Plaintiff has a congressionally defined right to receive all communications from a debt collector free from any misrepresentations and false threats.

14. Plaintiff has thus suffered an injury as a result of Defendant's conduct, giving rise to standing before this Court. Spokeo, Inc. v. Robins, 136 S. Ct. 1540, 1544 (2016), quoting Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 580 (1992) (Congress has the power to define injuries and articulate chains of causation that will give rise to a case or controversy where none existed before.); Bellwood v. Dwivedi, 895 F. 2d 1521, 1526-27 (7th Cir. 1990) ("Congress can create new substantive rights, such as a right to be free from misrepresentations, and if that right is invaded the holder of the right can sue without running afoul of Article III, even if he incurs no other injury[.]”).

15. “Without the protections of the FDCPA, Congress determined, the ‘[e]xisting laws and procedures for redressing these injuries are inadequate to protect consumers.’” Lane v. Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC, No. 15 C 10446, 2016 WL 3671467, at *3 (N.D. Ill. July 11, 2016)(quoting 15 U.S.C. § 1692(b)). Thus, a failure to honor a consumer’s right under the FDCPA constitutes an injury in fact for Article III standing. See id. at *3 (holding that a consumer “has alleged a sufficiently concrete injury because he alleges that [Defendant] denied him the right to information due to him under the FDCPA.”); see also Church v. Accretive Health, Inc., No. 15-15708, 2016 WL 3611543, at *3 (11th Cir. July 6, 2016) (holding that consumer’s § 1692g claim was sufficiently concrete to satisfy injury-in-fact requirement).

16. “[E]ven though actual monetary harm is a sufficient condition to show concrete harm, it is not a necessary condition.” Lane, 2016 WL 3671467 at *4.

PARTIES

17. Plaintiff, Scott Harrison, (hereafter “Plaintiff”), is a natural person currently residing in the State of Texas.

18. Plaintiff is a “consumer” within the meaning of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

19. Defendant, Elevate Recoveries, LLC, is a Texas corporation with its principal offices at 3600 S. Gessner Road, Suite 225, Houston, Texas 77063.

20. Defendant is engaged in the business of a collection agency, using the mails and telephone to collect consumer debts originally owed to others.

21. Defendant regularly collects or attempts to collect defaulted consumer debts due or asserted to be due another, and is a “debt collector” as defined in 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6) of the FDCPA.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

22. Plaintiff is a natural person allegedly obligated to pay a debt asserted to be owed to a creditor other than Defendant.

23. On a date better known by Defendant, Defendant began to attempt collection activities on Plaintiff's alleged debt.

24. On or about July 1, 2020, Plaintiff had a telephone conversation with Defendant regarding an alleged debt allegedly owed by Plaintiff.

25. The debt was said to be allegedly owed for a medical bill, and therefore would only have been used for personal or family purposes.

26. The alleged debt was primarily for personal, family or household purposes and is therefore a "debt" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).

27. The telephone call is a "communication" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(2).

28. During the telephone call, Plaintiff stated that he did not agree with the balance and that it should be much lower.

29. Defendant's representative began arguing with Plaintiff about his insurance, despite having no actual knowledge regarding Plaintiff's insurance.

30. Plaintiff requested documentation from Defendant's representative, but Defendant's representative refused.

31. Defendant's representative refused to send information and said he must get his information directly from the insurance carrier.

32. Plaintiff is under absolutely no obligation to consult with or inform any other party of his dispute and does not have to invalidate an alleged debt.

33. Rather, Plaintiff may dispute directly with the third-party creditor who then must validate the alleged debt, who in this case is Defendant.

34. Defendant's representative cannot refuse to accept a dispute, as Plaintiff is entitled to dispute for any reason, or even no reason at all. Mendez v. M.R.S. Assoc., 2004 WL 1745779 *2 (N.D. Ill. Aug. 3, 2004). (A consumer is entitled to dispute the validity of a debt for a good reason, a bad reason, or no reason at all), Whitten v. ARS National Servs. Inc., 2002 WL 1050320 *4 (N.D. 111 May 23, 2002). (Imposing a requirement that a consumer have a 'valid' reason to dispute the debt is inconsistent with FDCPA), Castro v. ARS National Servs., Inc., 2000 WL 264310 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 8, 2000), Frey v. Satter, Beyer & Spires., 1999 WL 301650 (N.D. Ill. May 3, 1999).

35. Defendant's representative then told Plaintiff that she would not even put the account on hold.

36. Again, after Plaintiff explained he disagreed with the alleged debt, Defendant should cease collection until validation can be obtained.

37. Defendant's representative continually attempted to dissuade Plaintiff from effectuating his dispute by adding completely unnecessary hurdles to the dispute process.

38. Defendant's representative made numerous statements that were completely false and that would mislead a consumer as to his rights.

39. Defendant knew, or should have known, that the above statements were false, misleading, and harassing in nature.

40. All of Defendant's actions complained of herein occurred within one year of the date of this Complaint.

41. Defendant's conduct has caused Plaintiff to suffer damages including but not limited to the loss of time incurred by Plaintiff as well as attorneys' fees paid for advice regarding his situation.

42. Congress has found that "[a]busive debt collection practices contribute to the number of personal bankruptcies, to marital instability, to the loss of jobs, and to invasions of individual privacy." 15 U.S.C. § 1692(a).

43. Here, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact in at least one of the manners contemplated by Congress when it passed the FDCPA because of Defendant's conduct.

44. Defendant's action has created an appreciable risk of harm to the underlying concrete interests that Congress sought to protect in creating the FDCPA.

45. Plaintiff would have pursued a different course of action had Defendant not violated the statutory protections created by Congress.

46. Plaintiff attempted to pursue his right yet was left with no actual knowledge as to how to proceed based on Defendant's actions.

47. Defendant's denial of Plaintiff's rights caused harm in the form of impaired credit, no plausible way of ascertaining the status of his debt in order to make a rational determination as to how to proceed and forcing him to make financial decisions based on misinformation and engage in financial planning based on incorrect facts.

48. Defendant knew, or should have known, that the above statements were false, misleading, and harassing in nature.

49. All of Defendant's actions complained of herein occurred within one year of the date of this Complaint.

50. Defendant's conduct has caused Plaintiff to suffer damages including but not limited to the loss of time incurred by Plaintiff as well as attorneys' fees paid for advice regarding his situation.

51. Plaintiff's injury-in-fact is fairly traceable to the challenged representations of Defendant.

52. Plaintiff's injury-in-fact is likely to be redressed by a favorable decision in this Court.

53. Defendant's collection communications are to be interpreted under the "least sophisticated consumer" standard. See, Goswami v. Am. Collections Enter., Inc., 377 F.3d 488, 495 (5th Cir. 2004); Taylor v. Perrin, Landry, deLaunay & Durand, 103 F.3d 1232, 1236 (5th Cir.1997)

(When deciding whether a debt collection letter violates the FDCPA, this court “must evaluate any potential deception in the letter under an unsophisticated or least sophisticated consumer standard.) See Also, Goswami, 377 F.3d at 495. (We must “assume that the plaintiff-debtor is neither shrewd nor experienced in dealing with creditors.”)

56. Defendant used false representations or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect a debt or obtain information concerning the Plaintiff, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(10).
